<sup>1</sup>Department of Nursing, Health Polytechnic of Health Ministry Banjarmasin, Indonesia

Abstract

Background: Sexual disharmony has serious effect, such as having sex with sex workers. This study aimed to explore the factors affecting married men who have sex with female sex workers as well as consequences.

Method: This study used a qualitative design with a phenomenological approach and purposive sampling. Total Sample was 13 married men who had sex with female sex workers in Pembatuan Area Landasan Ulin Timur, Banjarbaru. We conducted in-depth interview and FGD (focus group discussion). The result of study was descriptive analysis includes data reduction, data display, conclusion, and verification. The main outcome measures were themes identified as the reason married men had sex with female sex workers and the consequences of their behavior.

Results: Factors that affecting married men had sex with female sex workers was grouped into some categories that were irritable wife, body's wife is not ideal, wife is menopause or sick, environmental factors (intervene parents-in-laws), new sensations, loneliness because of distance, female sex workers are more communicative and romantic, get a bonus, excessive sex libido, not satisfied with his wife, the effect of alcohol and friends. While the consequences of married men had sex with female sex workers were financial disrupted, sexual transmitted infections, polygamy, better serving from wife, wife's appearance better than usual, divorce, regret, anxious, and satisfaction.

Discussion: Married couples are expected to live in the same place to fulfill psychological and biological needs can be fulfilled. If they have to live separately, both of them can control themselves and understand the consequences.

Keyword: married men, sexual activity, female sex workers, qualitative study, FGD

Introduction

Sex as harmonious communication does not occur in every couple <sup>(1)</sup>. Harmonious sex is needed to make partner feel satisfied. Some married couple can express their affection. Recognition of sexual desire could be a positive trigger and induce positive sexual expression <sup>(2)</sup>

Otherwise, disharmony sex has serious effect, such as having sex with sex workers. Wrong sex behavior among married men was having sex with female sex worker to look for satisfied at prostitution place or tourist area <sup>(3)</sup>.

Married men who have sex with female sex workers because they want to have fun, have variety in sexual behavior, their body's wife is not ideal, look for satisfied feeling, to get comfort from others without commitment, to get a sensation, influence of alcohol or drugs and also peer <sup>(4)</sup>. There are four aspects in term of sex behavior in married couples that were recreation, relations, procreation and institution <sup>(5)</sup>.

High number sexual transmitted diseases among men and women were reported and recorded in the Provincial Health Agency (Dinkes). Data from the Indonesian Ministry of Health (2016) showed that South Kalimantan had 144 people suffering from HIV, 65 people with AIDS in 2010. While in 2012 showed HIV was 34 people, AIDS was 22 people and Sexual
